COLVIN SPEAKS TO GOOD CROWD

Treats Subject of the Two Amendments Which Come Up in November.

Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin spoke at the court house Monday evening at 7:30 to a large and attentive audience. He was introduced by Miss Inez Luten, County Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Superintendent Colvin is an eloquent and interesting speaker and for an hour he held his audience's attention with his address which began with a resume of the developed and undeveloped resources of Kentucky and their relation to the school children of the state. He spoke at length in favor of the two amendments which will be voted on in November, one authorizing the election of the state superintendent by a commission instead of in a popular election, and the other which takes ten per cent of the school tax from those counties which have an overabundance of school moneys in ratio to their school population and giving it to those counties which have a large number of children of school age but have a small amount of taxable property. Mr. Colvin spoke forcefully on these subjects and his explanation of them cleared up many points on which the voters were befogged.

The Str. Sembrade bowed the Str. Exporter to Mound City Monday to have cylinder timbers on the latter railroad.

To the Voters of Fulton County

For the past several weeks I have been urged by numbers of my friends, both Democratic and Republican, to enter the race for the office of Sheriff of this county upon the Independent ticket. After carefully considering the matter from every standpoint, I have consented to do so, and want to say that I am in the fight to win.

In making this announcement, I believe that the public in general is entitled to know something of my qualifications, my ability and my purpose in making the race.

I was born in Murray, Callaway County, Kentucky, secured my education at McFarrin school, afterwards taking a four year course in Vanderbilt University, at Nashville, Tenn. Having graduated there in June, 1914, and for the past eight years have been in the tobacco business in Fulton, Kentucky.

I desire further to say that in politics I have always been a Republican in National elections, voting in State and county elections for whom and for what I considered to be to the best interests of the State and County, and the community at large, irrespective of politics.

I believe that I am qualified to fill the high office of Sheriff, and in the event that you see fit to elect me, I promise to fill said office with efficiency and without fear or favor, to serve all the people.

On account of the short length of time before the election on November 8th, it will be impossible for me to make a house to house canvass and see every voter in the county. But I feel that it is the duty of every man and woman voter of the county to look up the record and general qualifications of each candidate, and after having done so, vote for the man you honestly believe will best fill the office and serve the people.

Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

W. M. WHITNEL.

1921 WORLD CROPS ERRATIC IN YIELD

50 Per Cent Falling Off in Cotton Due to Weather.

Phenomenal heat accumulation which has marked weather conditions all over the northern hemisphere this year has produced equally remarkable and erratic outputs of agricultural crops, according to summaries of American and foreign production compiled for and by the Agriculture Department. The world's bread crops, curiously enough, came to abundant fruition in spite of drought and heat which persisted all during the growing season. The world in 1921, up to Sept. 30 it was indicated would have a total wheat crop of 157,000,000 bushels greater than in 1920.

By another freak fruit crops, almost in a world-wide sense, met havoc from cold in a season which has set new records everywhere for solar heat. This disaster was occasioned by the fact that last February the sun got at its work of bringing spring weeks in advance of normal, and trees and shrubs responded by budding out and finally coming into flower and bloom by March in nearly all areas where fruit is grown. Frosts could not be averted on all the nights, however, and this year the United States will produce about 109,000,000 bushels of apples, against 244,000,000 bushels in 1920. Only the orchards of the Pacific coast Northern New England and Northern New York escaped.

Cotton, however, suffered greatly, and the Agriculture Department experts assign the cause for a 50 per cent reduction in output. The mild weather of winter and spring gave its famous insect enemy, the boll weevil, full freedom to live and thrive, and even let him move north many miles from previous latitudes.

Later drought and sun conspired to cut down production of the fibre.

European fruit and subsidiary crops were sharply reduced, the department finds, although the bread grains survived. Their success, it was said, was due to the fact that they were chiefly fall-sown crops which grew well in the mild winter. The spring-sown grains, root and forages, including oats and barley, wheat, in the United States as elsewhere, lived through, but yielded little. Russia was the one exception in the northern territory, but in terms of statistical averages, the department says little grain was sown there. Italian lemons and Grecian currants, two of the greater commercial fruit crops were both found in fair condition this fall.

CARNIVAL NETS CHARITIES $117.50

Good Attendance at Friday Night Festival at Elks Club.

The carnival given at the Elks Club rooms last Friday night under the auspices of the United Charities of Hickman was well attended and well patronized as shown by the fact that a sum of $117.50 was netted this organization for use in charity work in the city.

Besides the many features which were had at last year's carnival, many new and interesting attractions were furnished, one of the most novel being the trained bear stunt. Several bunch stunts were conducted and a regular "49 Camp" furnished entertainment toward the close of the evening. All of the features were furnished by local talent. A program of vocal selections by local male quartet was enjoyed through the evening.

Credit is due the ladies who were responsible for the evening, the committee on arrangements being Mrs. Ellis Johnson, Mrs. Swayne Walker and Mrs. G. L. Bradley.

R. M. ISLER RETIRED.

R. M. Isler, for 37 years connected with the Southern Express Company here as their agent, severed his connection with that company last Saturday night. The express company, through appreciation of his long and useful services has retired him on a pension. During the 37 years of service with this company Mr. Isler has been absent from his duties but four months. The people of Hickman will regret seeing such an accommodating agent as Mr. Isler has been retired, and it will be extremely difficult to secure one who will fill his position with the faithfulness and accommodation which he has done. No successor has yet been appointed to the place.

PURCHASE BARBER SHOP.

Phelps, Fowler and Laird, proprietors of the O. K. Barber Shop, have bought the business formerly conducted by Elmo Allen, colored barber on Clinton street, and began on Monday the operation of the two shops under the same management. A full quota of barbers will remain at the O. K. shop and the same will be true of the other shop.

The Parent-Teachers' Association will have a cake sale in the Montgomery building Saturday.

Mrs. M. L. Lancaster, of Memphis, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker.

BY-PRODUCTS OF LITERATURE

Authorless, Planning African Trip, Certainly Is Overlooking Nothing That Can Be Made Useful.

Using the by-products is the most characteristic feature of distinctly modern industry. How thoroughly this principle has been applied to literature comes out in an interview with a charming and able Chicago novelist who is taking her five-year-old daughter into Africa gorilla hunting with Carl Akeley's party.

The author in question will make the trip to collect local color, the basic material in the fiction industry. The first product will be a novel, with a movie to follow. But not all the local color which an African trip is bound to yield can be used in a novel, so the author plans to work over the waste in a travel book, which will find a ready sale to that small but choice public which has weariest of fiction. The third and rather special product will be the story of her small daughter's reaction to the adventure, which is expected to make another interesting book.

Each of the three books is a separate product of the basic local color; each will satisfy a certain special need and reach a public of its own. Between the fiction readers, the armchair travelers and the students of the child-mind, this author pretty well covers the book-buying classes. Considering how little daughter will probably react when she sights her first gorilla, the "child reactions" book may fairly be called "utilizing the squeal."

EVERYDAY FOODS AND DAINTY DISHES.

Coffee is a delicious flavor to use in various dishes. The delicate aroma and flavor enjoyed at the morning meal is equally tempting when used in desserts.

Steamed Coffee Pudding.—Cream together one-fourth of a cupful of butter. Add one cupful of sugar and one egg slightly beaten. Add four tablespoonfuls of ground coffee to one cupful of milk and scald ten minutes. Strain through a cheesecloth. Sift together two and one-fourth cupfuls of pastry flour four teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Add this alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Turn into a large buttered mold and steam two hours. If small molds are used steam one-half hour. Serve with the following sauce: Melt one-half cupful of butter, add one cupful of powdered sugar and one egg slightly beaten. Then add one cupful of milk which has been scalded with three tablespoonfuls of coffee and strained. Flavor with a few drops of vanilla.

Sardine Canape.—Cut bread in circles a little larger than a silver dollar, brown in a little butter and set aside. Remove the skin and bones from a small box of sardines. Add the yolks of two hard-cooked eggs, one tablespoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, salt and cayenne to taste. Spread smoothly over the bread. Chop the whites and one small green pepper. Cut strips of pimento to divide the canape into quarters. Fill two with the egg white and the other two with the pepper.

Fruit Cocktail.—Use a small potato cutter and scoop out small balls from firm but ripe bananas. Sprinkle with lemon juice, cut large balls of watermelon and use only the firm pink centers. Mix them, add a sauce of thick sirup flavored with a grating of orange or lemon rind. Serve in stemmed glasses garnished with sprigs of fresh mint.

Disappearing Eagle.

Americans have made war to such an extent upon the national bird—the American eagle—that few specimens of the species are left in the East, and when one of these birds does show itself the first impulse of the man or boy who sees it is to shoot to kill. Yet the eagle is a harmless bird and does ill to nobody. Now and then a bird-eagle flies over the national capital and a few are to be seen in the region of Washington, but they have become rare. Last spring a large and handsome member of the species was shot and killed in the woods bordering Nantux creek, about thirty miles below Washington and close to the junction of that creek and the Potomac river.

Beirut's Housing Problem.

The return of many Syrians from North and South America, the presence of the French army of occupation, civil officers, European commercial travelers, tourists and refugees have together caused an unprecedented housing shortage in Beirut which is becoming a serious problem. The local government has attempted to control the rents by a decree, but the upward trend continues.

Canada Liberal to Its Veterans.

The gratuity paid by the Canadian government to her World War veterans was by far the most liberal of all the allies. A married man, with three children's service, received a minimum of $600, and a single man $420, while the widows and noncommissioned officers received more, according to their rank.

SHOOT SHEEP-KILLING DOGS

No Consideration Should Be Given Such Animals and Should Be Destroyed at Once.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The sheep-killing dog constitutes one of the greatest menaces to the sheep industry. Such dogs not only kill sheep, but keep out of the sheep business men who are otherwise inclined to go into it, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Sheep-killing dogs work both singly and in groups, but usually in twos or threes. They do not limit their attacks to the flocks of the immediate vicinity in which they are kept, but travel for miles in all directions, spreading destruction in the flocks with which they come in contact. Because their work is so often done under the cover of darkness it is almost impossible to catch them in the act of worrying sheep.

After a dog has once formed the habit of killing sheep it seemingly becomes a mania with him and he is seldom if ever broken of it. He not only destroys sheep himself but leads other dogs to the work. No consideration should be given such dogs; and if additional losses from this source are to be avoided, they should be killed as soon as their habits are known.

Illinois Central System Holds Railroading Is as Attractive Now as Ever

Right now, when optimism in all branches of industry is needed more than ever before, we regret to note an unorganized but none the less effective effort to make railway work appear unattractive to our young men. Non-railway men have expressed discouraging views, and even some railway officers have lent their opinions to this unprogressive effort. For the most part, fortunately, these views are merely opinions without a statistic in support.

We, of the Illinois Central System, do not subscribe to these pessimistic opinions. In any single particular. We believe—indeed, we know—that the present-day complexity of railway organization demands men better trained and more resourceful than ever before, and that opportunities for advancement, to the right men, are as good as they ever were.

There is danger, however, that, although unfavorable opinions of railway work are false, constant reiteration may result in their acceptance as fact, and some promising young railway men may be sidetracked into other missions of less benefit to themselves and to the public. Any business is largely what you make it. Railway men should point out how attractive their business really is.

What other present day businesses have greater romance, better compensation and swifter chances for advancement than railroading? These three factors—opportunity, compensation, adventure—are the lodestones that draw young men today as truly as they did their fathers twenty, thirty or forty years ago. What has railroading lost in these respects that other businesses have gained?

As construction of new lines, with consequent opening of new territory, has almost ceased, perhaps some of the romance has faded out of railroading. The day of the empire builder is past. But have other businesses fared better? What competing industry has more adventure, even today? Only on the frontiers of civilization, which have crept far outside our immediate problem, will you find the great adventures again—and out there, the chances are, you will find the railroader, next to the soldier, perhaps, the envied man.

In place of the old frontiers we have something far more productive of opportunity for service—a large population busy in the further development of our country. In this development the railroads play a part of tremendous importance, for business of every kind is dependent upon adequate transportation. In providing that transportation at minimum cost and at the same time improving and enlarging the transportation plant, to keep it abreast with the country's growth, the present day railway man has a problem bigger than his grandfather and his father faced in the days of pioneer railroading, and he is better paid.

But how about advancement? Has a young man in railway work a chance as good as those in other lines? Will merit find its own place at the top? We believe no other business offers better opportunity for advancement to the young man who insists upon advancement. Inertia won't push him to the top any more today than it would forty years ago, but his boss' job is always just in front of him, and the pursuit is still the same old game.

The young men who are now coming along in railway service don't know much about the conditions that prevailed a generation ago, and we doubt that many of them care. All that a young man who has the right kind of stuff in him is concerned about is the problem of tackling the task confronting him today, and he doesn't care a rap about how somebody did the job before. He has his own future to carve—and many young railway men are carving theirs rapidly today.

For example, of the official positions on the Illinois Central System, 85 are held by men less than 30 years of age, 122 are held by men between 30 and 35 years of age, and 213 are held by men between 35 and 40 years of age. Three of the executive positions are held by men less than 40 years of age. This proves that opportunity still exists in the railway business. The best man will seize it, as he always did and always will. The same effort wins in railway work as in other lines, and the final rewards compare favorably with those in most competing industries.

The editor of an important newspaper wrote the other day: "There is no more interesting calling than that of railroading. It is a man's game, and next to our own we esteem it as a vocation of less monotony and more adventure than any other." This is a competent outsider's opinion of the railway business. While we do not agree with the exception he made, we believe it is otherwise a correct opinion.

Moreover, we believe it would be conducive to the good of the railroads if similar opinions were adopted and expressed more frequently. We believe the contrary viewpoint is erroneous, and its adoption by many of our citizens would be detrimental to the railroads as well as to the public welfare.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

C. H. MARKHAM,
President Illinois Central System.

W. I. SWAIN SHOW CO. TO BE AT HICKMAN

The announcement that the W. I. Swain shows will entertain in a given or designated community for the usual allotted period of one week is greeted by the population with a complacency born of fulfilled promises in the past and sharpened by the absolute knowledge that the coming of the Swain show means a week of clean wholesome big city amusement, combined in a new program each performance.

For upward of twenty eight years W. I. Swain has been producer, censor and purveyor to countless thousands of men, women and children, who depended upon him to lift them out of the rut of commonplace, humdrum world and tone them up to better and renewed efforts. To visit the entire series of entertainments throughout Swain's week is in itself a form of education. The best in drama, comedy, chautauqua and concert, judiciously presented with such an artful blending of an arena atmosphere that it widens the scope of life's perspective and leaves the memories to be enjoyed in retrospect.

What Luther Burbank has done with fruits and vegetables, Edison with the electric and abstract fields of nature, Swain has accomplished in the world of intellectual pastime and temporal relief by a psychological process known only to himself.

In the memory of the oldest inhabitant no permanent amusement organization can be recalled in the past that measures up to the colossal magnificence embodied in its ample scheme of conduct—the sterling merit of the various programs or the liberal value given for a nominal price.

The W. I. Swain show will entertain for a week in Hickman, beginning Monday night, October 10. This will be the 28th consecutive year that this big "show window of the show world" will be welcomed by the citizens of this city.

MRS. CHARLIE WILSON

Relatives and friends of Mrs. Charlie Wilson were greatly shocked over her sudden death on Monday night, having been ill less than eighteen hours. Mrs. Wilson had been visiting in town here Sunday and was apparently well, according to reports after midnight Sunday night, the doctor concluding there most all day Monday. Mrs. Wilson received a slight fall about a week ago, but had felt no bad effects from the fall, and it is not known whether this caused her sudden illness or not. She was a daughter of Peter McMullen and well known here, being one of the most prominent ladies of the Brownsville section. Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, two grown, one of whom is in the navy and visited here last month; also two little girls, one only two years old. She was a sister of Henry McMullen and Jim McMullen of this city. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon with interment at Poplar Grove.

Rush to Stake Gold Claims.

It is reported that gold hunters are swarming over the country drained by the Wapash river, New Brunswick, and panning the sands of the stream in search of the yellow metal. The prospectors are looking for the Gilbertson lode. The story is told how Gilbertson made a canoe trip up the river some sixty years ago, and while making camp for the night came across a large body of gold-bearing ore. Not knowing what it was, he took home a large piece to use as a door weight. Some time later a geologist, visiting Gilbertson, identified the ore, and a mad rush to stake claims along the Wapash river ensued. Gilbertson refused to tell where he found the ore. Later he became insane, and died without revealing the secret. This season a systematic search is being made.

The home of Jim Provov, residing just outside the city limits in West Hickman, was destroyed on Thursday of last week about noon by fire, the entire kitchen being on fire when discovered by Mrs. Provov. They saved much of their household furniture, but the house was completely destroyed. The house was valued at about $800. The loss was covered by insurance.

OFFERS TO SELL WIFE OF WEEK FOR $1,000

Chicago, Oct. 1.—The momentous question of what a wife is worth has again arisen.

Harold C. Phelps quoted $1,000 as the price for his wife whom he had married a week previously. He ordered her to produce $1,000 or he would sell her at auction. She was granted a divorce Monday.

Joseph Lakewood traded a continent for his wife and regrets the deal. He begged Judge Jacobs to help him out of the bargain.

For thirty-three years he was happy with his continent, but two weeks ago in an evil moment, he traded the music for a wife.

CUTTING TOBACCO.

The Graves County farmers are now in the midst of their Autumn tobacco cutting and loading, and thousands of acres are being put into the barn.

The crop, so far as can be ascertained, is a very fine one, while the acreage is not as large as some of those of former years.

The quality is good, and the growers are paying more attention than ever, to the curing of the crop after it reaches the barn.—Mayfield Messenger.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, of this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. 'I saw after taking some Cardui... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night. I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me... My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere. E. 53

COMMUNITY FAIR FOR MARTIN IN NOVEMBER

Martin citizens are contemplating a community fair November 15 and 16 in connection with the Corn and Pie Club Show. It is intended to hold the fair in the Park securing large tents to house the displays. In the meantime to have more and wider outdoor amusements. The program of the fair will include broad making, cooking of all sorts, preserves, sewing, in fact every line that comes under the head of a woman's department. There will be prizes offered for agricultural products, poultry, swine, beef and dairy cattle and sheep.

There is no reason why a fair of this nature would not be a success in Martin and perhaps it can be made a permanent feature, extending over a period of several days next year.

Martin merchants and citizens have advised a willingness to secure the funds to make a good provision that will attract the best exhibitors in the county.—Weekley Co. Press.

LOCOMOTIVE DRIVEN MOWER.

The St. Louis Kennett & Southeastern Railroad Co. is having the woods cut on its right of way this week doing the work with a special mower that is drawn by a locomotive.

The machine, which is a recent invention, belongs to the Tawring Southwestern Railroad. It cuts a swath ten feet wide on each side of the railroad, and handles good sized sprouts, briars, etc., as well as the weeds and grass. It is equipped with a "break" attachment similar to the one that was formerly placed on cultivators—a wooden peg that gives way if the mower strikes anything it can't handle.

It does the work in a hurry and they expect to have the entire right of way between Kennett and Piggott cut in a day or two.—Dunklin Democrat, Kennett, Mo.

THE GREAT UNEMPLOYED.

"I tell you, my boy," earnestly remarked the benign old professor, "it doesn't pay to be crooked."

"I realize that," the bright student replied, "Look at all the cork-screws out of a job."

UNTO THE END.

"How's this?" asked the lawyer. You've named six bankers in your will to be pallbearers. Of course, it's all right, but wouldn't you rather choose some friends with whom you are on better terms?"

"No, Judge, that's all right. Those fellows have carried me for so long they might as well finish the job."—Ex.

The Van Brunt Drill

Harvest Proves the Value of the Van Brunt Drill

Regardless of soil and weather conditions, the seed must be planted right to get the biggest harvest. You can feel absolutely sure that it is planted right if you use one of the Van Brunt Drills we have in stock. This drill has a patented, adjustable gate force feed that successfully handles any size seed from alfalfa to bearded oats without choking.

The force feed compels the seed to leave the grain box in even, continuous streams, and the seed is protected until it reaches the bottom of the furrow.

That is why a field planted with a Van Brunt Drill makes such a pleasing appearance to the eye—and why it adds extra money to your bank account. All of the grain is ready for harvest at one time. There are no bare spots in the field, and you can feel absolutely sure that no seed is wasted in planting. Come in and let us show you how easy it is to regulate the flow of seed—simply moving a lever regulates the quantity sown and an equal amount is placed in each furrow.

COAT MODES

Designed upon long and straight lines, give to the new wraps an appearance loose and flowing, but charmingly becoming. Many novel touches in the form of collars, sleeves, pockets and trimmings help to bring out the general beauty of their lines in a way that is admirable. Prices very moderate—

$14.50 to $55.00

CHILDREN'S COATS

$4.95 to $22.50

SKIRT MODES

Though simplicity is again the dominant note, several novel and chic effects are attained by pleating, flaring and in the arrangement of the pockets. Many sport skirts are also shown in bright combinations that are simply irresistible. We want you to examine the splendid quality of the materials and note these moderate prices—

$3.95 to $19.75

MILLINERY

The styles in millinery for this season tend to favor the large picture hat, though by no means are the small hats discarded. In crowns alone ideas are exceedingly varied. Conspicuous for dress wear is the black hat, with its large shape enhanced by its effective trimming. For coverings, satins, crepe silk, hatters' plush, duvetyn and plain velvet are used in shades that are as varied and smart as the styles themselves. Prices are more reasonable than for several years, as you will readily agree—

$2.95 to $25

SUIT MODES

To be sure styles are many and varied, differing in length and modeling of the jackets and skirts as well as in the trimmings, exhibiting in their many originalities the genius of their creations. See them, if it is only to know what the new styles are to be. All in all, it is the most interesting group of suits we have ever shown at such moderate prices—

$19.50 to $69.50

DRESS MODES

Again fashion says, "straight and narrow," and though not a few models exploit tight girdle hips and flaring skirts, the majority are modeled along the slender silhouette. And in no other model are the slender lines more charming than in the new chemise frocks. No matter what your idea of style and price may be, we certainly would be surprised if you could not find it in the assortment we present—

$5.75 to $59.50

BLOUSE MODES

Pleasant surprises await those women who seek the new and exclusive in blouse wear. Many variations of the mode can be seen, with sleeves varying from the very long to three-quarter lengths. For dress occasions charming suit shades are all the rage; for utility, flesh color and white. At the prices we offer them you should buy several.

WORK OF ANCIENT BUILDERS

Methods of Thousands of Years Ago Seem Crude Today, but They Were Effective.

Dr. C. S. Fisher of the University of Pennsylvania has recently spent six years at the head of archeological expeditions to Egypt, and among his discoveries were some which help to make the methods of the ancient builders less mysterious. Three thousand years before Christ they were working an alabaster quarry at El Amarna, 11 miles from the Nile and 200 miles above Memphis. From this quarry they transported blocks of alabaster, each many tons in weight, to Memphis in the following manner: They built a road, much as we should build it now, from the quarry to the river bank, with a smooth surface of pounded stone.

The blocks were quarried by means of wooden wedges driven in at intervals along the cleavage line. When soaked with water, the wedges expanded and split off the stone, which was then shaped and dressed with chisels and drills of very hard bronze. The blocks were mounted on sleds and dragged by gangs of slaves the 11 miles to the river, the road being watered, possibly oiled, to make it slippery under the sled runners (they had no wheels). Down the river the blocks were floated on rafts, to be dragged finally to the building sites.

POPULAR FALLACY EXPLODED

The plaint of many persons for years that if a store didn't spend so much for advertising "the cost of that suit of clothes would be about half what it was" is proved to be wholly false by Prof. Horace Secrist, director of the Bureau of Business Research of Northwestern University, who has just finished an elaborate survey of the retail clothing trade. Prof. Secrist has just gone to Rochester, N. Y., to deliver four addresses in as many days at the annual meeting of the National Association of Retail Clothiers, whose membership furnished the information upon which his survey is based.

If a Chicagoan buys two suits of clothes a year and pays an average of $50 for each suit—an expenditure of $100—Prof. Secrist discovered that of this total net sale, only $2.07 went for advertising, and of this small amount but $1.50 went to the newspapers for newspaper advertising. The survey covered a three-year period and is regarded as furnishing standards for the retail clothing trade. Whereas the newspapers get only a little over $1.50 of that $100, Prof. Secrist shows that the landlord, for rent, got $2.64, and that wages took $12.48. The bonus plan is not used by a majority of the retail clothiers, and wherever it exists, it generally is in city plants of the largest companies, the survey reveals. Thirty-six states with 540 stores contributed the information, the Northwestern professor reports. The survey was in progress a year, the results are published in six volumes, and the total cost was about $50,000.

"This survey is said to be unique," commented Prof. Secrist before leaving for Rochester. "As far as known, a similar study never was made in any other industry or trade."

Henry Helm lost a small tenant house on his farm one day last week, and the fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. The house was occupied by a negro family, who had quarreled with a negro family on another farm, the latter negro being seen in the vicinity of the house shortly before the fire. The family occupying Mr. Helm's house was away that day and there had been no fire in the house all day. He carried no insurance.

CONTROL INTESTINAL WORMS

Best Way Is to Change Ground Upon Poultry Run, Especially if Fowls Are Crowded.

Changing the ground upon which poultry run is the best means of controlling intestinal worms in poultry, because the worms or eggs of the worm will stay over in the ground from one season to another especially if the poultry is overcrowded.

Power From Glacier.

On account of the scarcity of water power in the Bern district of Switzerland, it is proposed to utilize the water from the glaciers in a systematic manner. The Thachlis glacier is the first one selected, and by closing the natural drainage and constructing a masonry dam the engineers are to form a storage reservoir of 113,000,000 cubic feet capacity. Gravel, which upon the completion of the new dam 492 feet long, 325 feet high by 262 feet wide at the base and 12 feet 6 inches wide at the top, becomes the main storage basin for the entire installation. Two new power stations are to be constructed, developing 120,000 horsepower in one and 80,000 horsepower in the other.

He was buried in an ancient casket and his friends threw palm leaf fans in his grave, as he may need them. Montpelier 1N 100 Mag. no.

Stopping a Hemorrhage.

Dr. F. C. Hildebrand has a novel method of stopping hemorrhage. Writing in the Horticulture for October, he describes a case in which he cut a piece of muslin from near the site of the hemorrhage, used it as a plug or patch and secured it with pins. Always stop the flow of blood. He thinks this is a very successful method in all cases of hemorrhage.

FEEDING CATTLE FOR PROFIT

Market Requirements for Beef Are Much Higher Than in Former Years—Skill Needed.

The feeding of beef cattle for the market has become a special line of work, which requires a high grade of skill through understanding of the feeding values of different materials used in the production of beef as well as an appreciation of the requirements of animal nutrition and shrewd business ability. Without these prerequisites the feeder is doomed to receive very small returns for his labor. The market requirements for beef at present are much higher than in former years. It is necessary therefore, in order to obtain prices which will pay the feeder for his time and outlay to produce a herd of cattle as nearly uniform as possible in appearance and quality, with a high mark of finish and symmetrical development, particularly in those parts which yield high priced cuts in which the profits lie for the butcher.

ARRANGE WALLS FOR HOGS

Water Must Be Supplied Not Only for Drinking but for Animals to Cool Bodies.

Hogs in pasture where there is no water are likely to suffer, not only for drinking water, but for water in which to cool their bodies. Hogs are not so efficient. The hogs should have water in their troughs and in the yard to cool themselves when the burning rays of the sun makes their lives a torture.

Hogs have a way of rubbing themselves of troublesome parasites when they have a muddy wallow. Nature, it seems, helps them to survive as the fittest when there is a struggle for existence with parasites.

Hogs that must be penned should have shade and plenty of water. It is bad enough to be kept in pen without a struggle with heat and thirst. Give them shade and water.

PLAN TO PREVENT INFECTION

Newly Purchased Animals Should Be Quarantined in Separate Pens for Two Weeks.

Do not place newly purchased stock, stock purchased or borrowed for breeding purposes, or stock exhibited at fairs immediately with your herd. Keep such stock quarantined in separate pens for at least two weeks, and use care in feeding and attending stock to prevent carrying infection from these to other pens.

BOAR HAS GREAT INFLUENCE

Breeding Animal Should Be Placed in Good-Sized Yard and Away From Rest of Herd.

How about the herd boss? Get him out in a good-sized yard, away from the rest of the herd. Remember he is half of the breeding power of the herd, and that his influence on the profits for the year amounts to more than that of any one sow.

TOO MUCH SCIENCE

A Chicago Judge recently recommended inclusion of a course in the science of matrimony in the public school curriculum of this city.

Possibly the Chicago Jurist is right, it may be that intensive application in youth to such pertinent subjects as, for instance, the psychology of the breakfast table, or the theory of domestic strategy and the midnight alibi, or applied domestic philosophy with special reference to the mother-in-law, would result in a higher average per marriage, of matrimonial bliss.

On the other hand, what about the danger of such a science? What of its effect on the marriage rate? It almost seems that the didactic reduction of matrimonial conduct to a set of academic rules and precepts would destroy all taste for the enterprise.

If marriage, that ancient, blissful, breathless, blindfold venture, is turned into an exact science, who becomes of its enchanting uncertainty? Stopped of its delectable mystery, defined, analyzed, propounded, regulated and expounded in the dull pages of the text books, what will remain of its romantic glamour?—Leslie's.

DON'T RISK NEGLECT

Don't neglect a constant backache, sharp, darting pains or urinary disorders. The danger of dropsy or bright's disease is too serious to ignore. Use Doan's Kidney Pills, as have your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbors! A Hickman case.

John Provow, barber, 810 Jackson Ave., says: "From overworking and standing on my feet, my kidneys became affected and my back pained with sharp, shooting pains across the small of it. The secretions were irregular in passage and I had to get up a few times at night. The secretions were highly colored and scalding in passage and I was annoyed quite a bit. As I had known of Doan's Kidney Pills for years, I used them and was helped. I can certainly say a word of praise for Doan's.

The above statement was given October 18, 1916, and on December 3, 1920, Mr. Provow said: "I have the same good opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as when I endorsed them in 1916. I always take Doan's when my kidneys bother me, and they relieve me promptly."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Provow had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Texas Raises Less Rice.

It is estimated that the rice acreage in Texas this season is more than 50 per cent less than that of last year. Growers assert that they lost money on their crop last year, due to low prices and poor marketing conditions. The Southern Rice Growers' association has gone out of business and its place is being taken by the American Rice Growers' association, which is said to be patterned after the California Fruit Growers' association, so far as its co-operative and marketing features are concerned.

Balloon Goes Higher Than Airplane.

While the record altitude for airplanes is broken almost every year, that for manned balloons has stood unchanged since the balloonist Borson and Snerling rose to a height of 35,400 feet above sea level at Berlin in 1901. This is a little better than the best airplane record.

NOTICE—All property owners are notified that they must inspect their flames before building fires, in order to lessen the danger of setting fire to buildings.—Pat Posey, Fire Chief.

The local carpenters' union is to be congratulated on the manner in which they have built the stands, pens, etc. for the Community Fair which started today. These men gave their work and in this manner saved the Commercial Club a big expense. They realize that it takes money to put on a fair, so they are giving their labor so that the money collected can go in the premium list.

THE LEADER'S POSITION.

The issue of this paper yesterday carried the announcement of Mr. W. M. Whitnel of this city, who will make the race for Sheriff of Fulton County. Mr. Whitnel is making the race on an independent ticket against Mr. J. O. West of Hickman, who was nominated for the office in the Democratic primary of August 3. In politics Mr. Whitnel is a Republican.

The Leader is a Democratic newspaper and as such has always stood for party regularity in all ways. At this time we wish to state that The Leader will continue to be a Democratic newspaper and will support Mr. West. We could hardly do otherwise even if we wished.

When we cast our vote in the Democratic primary we thereby pledged ourselves to support the nominee, whoever the nominee might be. Frankly speaking, there were others in the race whom we preferred to Mr. West, and we did not vote for Mr. West. But the fortunes of politics did not favor the man of our choice and he was defeated. The fortunes of politics did favor Mr. West and he was the winner of the nomination. According to the pledge that we and other voters made by entering the primary, we are morally bound to support Mr. West. He is the legally nominated candidate for Sheriff, and he is entitled to the support of every Democrat who voted in the August primary.

Of Mr. Whitnel we have nothing to say in a disparaging manner. We have known him to be a clean, straightforward young man. We have but two objections to his being Sheriff. One of these objections is that he is a Republican; the other is that Mr. West is entitled to the office. If he is not entitled to the office the Democratic party must surrender every vestige of party regularity. Mr. West won the nomination over his opponents, and we are assured that his opponents will do all they can to insure his election.

—Fulton Daily Leader.

RESIDENCE DAMAGED BY FIRE.

The residence of J. H. Peck on Monton street was damaged by fire Saturday afternoon, the roof being burned and the interior damaged by fire and water. The fire department, led by Chief Posey did good work in extinguishing the flames and protecting the nearby buildings. The damage is estimated at about $600, fully covered by insurance. The furniture of Catherine Jones, who occupied the second floor of the residence was damaged to some extent in removing it from the house, and this was fully insured.

REGULARS 13; SCRUBS 6.

In the first game of the year, the Hickman High defeated the Scrubs 13 to 6. But it was not until the last three minutes of play that the former managed to shove the ball across the goal for the second touchdown. Both sides resorted to line bucks in their efforts to advance the ball. The High team reeled off a couple of end runs in the last quarter which netted thirty yards.

The Scrubs, after receiving the kick-off, began with a rush and for several minutes swept the big lads off their feet. Bill Cook plowed through the line time after time for big gains. On a fumble twenty yards from the goal the High gained the ball. But they failed to make any consistent advances and the Scrubs again got the ball. McKinmons carried the pilskin across for the first score. In the second half the High lads came back strong and displaying somewhat stronger offensive brushed aside their smaller opponents. Prather made several good gains, which put gloom over all hopes of a Scrub victory. After receiving a punt he made a run, which put the ball within five yards of the goal. On the third down it was carried across.

Those who did the best work for the High were Roney and Prather. Bone and Cook displayed good playing for the Scrub eleven.

FOOTBALL GAME TOMORROW.

On Friday afternoon the Hickman High foot ball team will take on the Union City eleven in the initial contest of the season. The visitors have a smooth working machine as shown by their victory over Marvin school, of Clinton. The local bunch is developing a good defense and promises to show up well. The admission will be 35c, 25c for children.
